Flexible support from a supplier you can trust

Businesses thrive when you and your staff have the freedom to do what they do best, rather than spending time grappling with IT problems. So why not let BT IT Manager do it for you? There are two levels of support to choose from – IT Site Manager and IT Support Manager. Both offer round-the-clock service delivering expert help and advice for all your IT problems. So, whether it's support you need for IT hardware you've just bought or help with an existing installation, we can address your IT problems before they can affect your business.

BT IT Site Manager

Our most comprehensive support package that gives you:

- A fully inclusive repair, monitoring, management, support and maintenance service at a price that's fixed for the duration of your contract
- Your hardware and software problems diagnosed and dealt with promptly
- 24/7<sup>2</sup> system support with remote intervention from a dedicated team of UK-based technicians
- Automatically installed anti-virus software
- A 24/7 advice line if you are running Microsoft applications
- A next business day<sup>3</sup>, on-site call out service if you're based on the UK mainland
- The latest security software patches proactively managed and delivered
- Our IT specialists are on hand 24/7 by either phone or email to help you to troubleshoot problems

From £180* per server and £18* per PC per month<sup>4</sup> *On a 36 month contract.

We'll help you get it installed.

Our Network Design and Installation Service can design and install a system with the flexibility and scalability to grow as your business grows. And, we'll install it with minimum fuss, disruption or downtime to you, your employees or your customers.

BT IT Support Manager

With IT Support Manager, you can rely on us to address your IT problems quickly and efficiently. Take a look at what you can get:

- Unlimited and immediate support from our 24/7 helpdesk<sup>2</sup>
- Our expert technicians can take 'remote control' of your PC to address any problems quickly
- An IT specialist will help you to troubleshoot product and technical issues either over the phone or by email
- If you're a registered user of Microsoft Applications we can help on how to use them
- If your problem can't be fixed remotely, a BT engineer can visit you within two working days<sup>5</sup> for an additional fee

IT support from just 33p a day<sup>6</sup>
